

Everlasting

God you were God you are
God you always will be Holy Holy Endless love
Perfect peace
You are infinitely
Worthy worthy

Age to age your great name
Shines with glory like the sunlight
God you shine bright

Yesterday and today
And forever the same
You're unchanging, unfailing
you will always remain
Let the nations sing praises
And declare that you reign
From everlasting to everlasting

Who unveils every star
And then hides them in the morning, morning
Who can hold every heart and breathe life into our Longing longing

God it you
you alone are deserving of the worship of the whole earth

Every king will fade
Every kingdom fall
Everything we've made
You'll outlast it all
