

Oh Broken Hearts

He is the strength
He is the strength for the weary
He is the shelter
For the battered and torn

He is the peace
He is the peace for the restless
He is the rescue
In the war and in the storm

Oh broken hearts come
Oh broken hearts come
Let the broken hearted know
The love of the Father
Oh broken hearts come
Everywhere and every one
Let the broken hearted know
The love of the Father
The love that never fails

He is the joy
He is the joy for hurting
He is the light
For a world in the dark

He is the hope
He is the hope for the hopeless
He is the way
When we don't know where we are

Glorious and powerful
A king upon his throne
His loving arms wide open calling us to be his own
