

We Bow Down

Oh how we waited
Prophets and poets
Said you were coming to us
Giving up heaven heaven
To die here among us
All for a world that you love

*We bow down on bended knee
To worship and adore the Savior King
Who has come to heal our hearts
Who has come to set us free
Who has come to give His life
Oh we bow down*

Oh how we trembled
Voices of angels
Declaring You've come down to us

Oh but do not be afraid
Great joy has come today
Let us go and see the Promise fulfilled

Joy to the world
The Lord is come
The Lord is come
We're singing joy to the world
The Lord is come
The Lord is come
